

US Citizen abroad? ...

ISS-USA can help!

If you are a US Citizen living, traveling or transiting through a foreign country, call International Social Service, USA (ISS-USA) to connect you with information and services that you may need.

ISS-USA is a social service agency that connects individuals and families to resources they need across borders. ISS-USA is based in Baltimore, USA and is a member of social work network with partners in over 130 countries around the world. ISS-USA may be able to provide case management for those who need assistance with:

1) Returning home:

We can help you learn more about options to explore if you want to return home.

2) Finding information about services:

ISS-USA can help identify services in the foreign country to address medical, mental health, financial, or legal challenges and connect you to those services.

3) Technical Assistance:

Not sure where to start? Not sure who to contact? ISS-USA has experts in cross border case management with over 90 years of experience connecting families to services they need.

Contact ISS-USA with questions about how to access services while overseas. If we can't link you to a service, we will do our best to link you to someone who can help.
